[17] From April 1998 through May 2008, the item was worded "The NewsHour with Jim Lehrer." In April 1996 the item was worded "Jim Lehrer NewsHour." In July 1994 and earlier, the item was worded "MacNeil-Lehrer NewsHour." The change in 2010 to "The PBS NewsHour" caused unforeseen measurement problems, however. Internal analysis suggests that there was significant over-reporting of NewsHour viewership. We suspect this is because when read over the phone, the new name may sound like a generic hour of news or any hour of PBS programming, as opposed to the name of a particular show. These figures are included in the topline for reference only. Our report does not include any analysis of the NewsHour audience because of this substantial measurement error. (This footnote was modified on Sept. 23, 2010.)
