[2] In the Aug. 25-Sept. 6, 2010 survey, a wording experiment was conducted with one half of respondents asked the question wording shown above, the other half was asked: "Some people seem to follow what's going on in government and public affairs most of the time, whether there's an election or not. Others aren't that interested. Would you say you follow what's going on in government and public affairs …" No significant differences were found between questions and the combined results are shown above. All survey prior to Sept. 2010 used the longer question wording.

5 In late October 2006 and earlier PLAN1 was worded: "Do you yourself plan to vote in the election this November?"

6 In Early October 2006 the PLAN2 was worded: "In the congressional election this fall, do you plan to vote BEFORE Election Day, that is through the mail or with an absentee ballot, OR will you probably vote at your polling place ON Election Day?"

7 In November 2004, PLAN2 wording did not begin by referencing a congressional or Presidential election. In Mid-October 2004 and earlier, PLAN2 was worded: "In the presidential election this fall..." In November and Mid-October 2004, "or have you already cast your vote," was added to the question wording, but had been a volunteer option in September 2004 and was not made available in June 2004.

8 In current survey, Late October, Mid-October and November 2008, November 2006, November 2004 and Early November 2002, the "10 – definitely will vote" category also includes people who volunteered that they already voted.
